Biography

Jessica Clark is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on general liability, including construction accidents, premises liability, automobile liability, and New York Labor Law.

Prior to joining the firm, Jessica served as a Partner for a full-service litigation firm, representing construction contractors, building owners, condominium, cooperative boards, developers, and insurance companies in construction litigation, premises liability, product liability, habitational, and insurance coverage actions. She has worked on the East 51st Street and East 91st Street crane collapse cases, high profile product liability litigation, and complex habitational claims. In addition, Jessica has argued appeals in the First and Second Appellate Divisions of New York and has obtained many successful outcomes for clients.

Jessica earned her Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Political Science from Bucknell University, graduating magna cum laude. During her time there, she was an active member of the university's Mortar Board Senior Honor Society and was President of the Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society. She was also on the golf team. Jessica went on to pursue her Juris Doctor degree from The University of Michigan Law School. While there, she distinguished herself by participating in the Henry M. Campbell Moot Court Competition. Jessica was also an active member of the Women's Law Students Association and Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.
