Biography

Julie Karron is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg. She focuses her practice on professional liability defense and civil litigation and serves as a Team Lead on the firm's Fraud Fighters Team. She has nearly two decades of experience in complex insurance defense, commercial litigation, and professional liability defense.

Julie excels in managing a diverse caseload, providing proficient defense in tort and catastrophic loss, construction accidents, premises liability, and professional liability. Her extensive experience includes defending wrongful death and catastrophic loss claims, representing general contractors and subcontractors in construction defects litigation, and managing high-stakes business disputes.

In her professional liability practice, she regularly handles matters on behalf of associations, businesses, contractors, developers, business owners, and professionals, including lawyers, accountants, physicians, insurance agents, appraisers, and real estate brokers.

Julie graduated from Florida International University with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. She obtained her Juris Doctor from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law, where she was a member of the Moot Court Honor Society.
