Biography

Christian Anderson is a Practice Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, where he handles matters related to general liability and third-party defense, with a focus on auto negligence cases and pre-suit claims resolution. He also handles personal injury protection defense matters.

Before joining Kelley Kronenberg, Christian worked as an Attorney managing high-volume caseloads in personal injury protection defense and general liability matters, settling cases on behalf of his clients. He brings additional experience in construction defect, premises liability claims, and family law.

Christian holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Central Florida. He obtained his Juris Doctor degree from Stetson University College of Law, where he demonstrated leadership as the Parliamentarian of the Student Bar Association and President of the Stetson Business Law Society. Recognized for his commitment to pro bono service, Christian was honored with the William Blews Award and named the Henry Latimer Center's 2016 Law Student Professionalism YouTube Contest winner. He dedicated his time to volunteer work with Gulf Coast Legal Services and served as a VITA tax preparation volunteer.
