Biography

Barron Becker is a Practice Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, where he assists in handling matters related to fraud litigation, automobile claims litigation and personal injury protection defense.

Before joining Kelley Kronenberg, Barron established the Florida office for a regional law firm, following which he spent two years handling civil litigation cases. Over the last year, Barron's practice focused on the defense of personal injury protection, first-party property, and bad faith claims.

Barron received his Bachelor's Degree in Marketing and Sales from Florida State University. He went on to earn his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Miami School of Law. While in law school, Barron gained extensive legal experience working as a Law Clerk for multiple firms, gaining essential experience in a multitude of practice areas, including bankruptcy, business and class action litigation, and general civil litigation. Amongst his legal concentrations, Barron focused on sports law, working as a Compliance Intern for the University of Miami Athletic Department and as a Legal Intern for Impact Sports Management. He also contributed as a Volunteer for the Startup Practicum, providing legal assistance to business start-ups.
