

Biography

Cara James is an attorney at Kelley Kronenberg, where she assists in handling matters related to personal injury protection.

Before joining the firm, Cara served as a student fellow for Florida Law Schools' Consortium on Racial Justice where she conducted legislative and racial history research and advocacy.

Cara earned her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Florida, majoring in Criminology. She went on to earn her Juris Doctor degree from St. Thomas University Benjamin L. Crump College of Law, where she made Dean's list.

Admissions

- Florida

Education

- St. Thomas University Benjamin L. Crump College of Law, J.D., 2022
- University of Florida, B.A., 2010

Industry Updates

- Grand Dreams Inc, Fort Lauderdale, FL., Board Member, 2015-present
- Broward County Bar Association, Member
- Featured, "Brittany Panter, Kally Feldman, Cara James and Benjamin Lazarus Join Kelley Kronenberg" CityBiz, June 2023