Biography

Dawn Miller is a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on general liability including construction accidents, premises liability, automobile liability, and New York Labor Law.

Before joining Kelley Kronenberg, Dawn served as an Associate Attorney, overseeing comprehensive caseloads that encompassed premises and general liability cases. In this role, she collaborated with experts to deliberate on their opinions and develop strategic plans, assessed injuries and jury verdicts and handled all facets of pretrial discovery, encompassing the preparation of pleadings, requests for discovery, and responses to discovery requests.

Dawn received her Bachelor of Arts in Legal Studies and Psychology and graduated summa cum laude from Quinnipiac University. She was active in the Legal Studies & Psychology Honor Societies and the Order of Omega Fraternal Honor Society. Her academic achievements include several prestigious awards, including the Phi Sigma Sigma National Scholarship Award, the Legal Studies Book Award, and The Mitchell M. Berkun Prize in Psychology for Outstanding Academic Achievement in Research. Dawn's dedication to her studies was evident from her consistent appearance on the Dean's List throughout her four years of undergraduate education, and her hard work and commitment earned her the Outstanding Freshman Award.

Dawn then pursued her Juris Doctor degree from Pace University School of Law, where she graduated cum laude. Throughout her law school years, she remained on the Dean's List and was involved in the Public Interest Law Scholarship Organization and the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.
