Biography

Connor Milo is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg, where he assists in handling matters related to general liability & third-party insurance defense.

Prior to joining the firm, Connor worked as a Senior Associate, where he led trial efforts for over 35 cases, gaining hands-on experience in both bench and jury trials. His skills in legal argumentation and client communication have been honed through numerous depositions, mediations, and arbitrations.

Connor graduated cum laude from Florida State University, where he earned dual bachelor's degrees in business management and professional sales. While at FSU, Connor was a proud Seminole Torchbearer and an active participant in the Garnet and Gold Key Honor Society. He went on to obtain his Juris Doctor degree, cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he distinguished himself as a champion in the Florida Bar Chester Bedell Mock Trial Competition and an active member of the UF Law Trial Team. Additionally, he was an ambassador for the UF Law New Student Orientation Program (ILSP), helping to guide and mentor incoming students and a member of the Marshall Bar Association.

While in law school, Connor gained experience as a Summer Law Clerk, where he identified fraudulent insurance billing patterns and drafted legal memoranda. Additionally, his role as an intern at the State Attorney's Office for the Fourth Judicial Circuit allowed him to draft critical legal documents, attend grand jury meetings, and assist in high-profile homicide cases.
