Biography

Aaron Neifeld is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg, where he concentrates on matters related to all aspects of general liability and third-party insurance defense.

Before joining the firm, Aaron worked as lead trial counsel at a local law firm, where he handled various personal injury and wrongful death matters in state and federal courts across the State of Florida. He has aggressively handled complex insurance defense litigation on behalf of businesses and individuals since 2016.

Aaron earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from The University of Central Florida, where he majored in Legal Studies and was a Burnett Honors College graduate.

Aaron went on to earn his Juris Doctor degree from Nova Southeastern University-Shepard Broad College of Law. While at Nova Southeastern University-Shepard Broad College of Law, Aaron gained experience by working as a Certified Legal Intern for the Miami-Dade Public Defender's Office in the Felony Trial Division. Aaron also was a member of the Nova Trial Association, where he was a national finalist in several mock trial competitions.

Apart from his work at Kelley Kronenberg, Aaron is a member of the Palm Beach County Bar Association, the Trial Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar, and a Board Member of the PBCBA's Lawyers for Literacy Committee, wherein he coordinates reading events at public schools across Palm Beach County. In his spare time, he enjoys presenting to high school students about careers in the legal field, competitive running, traveling, and practicing Brazilian jiu-jitsu.
