Biography

Michael Roos serves as a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, where he focuses his practice on general liability, trucking and transportation, and premises liability cases throughout the state of Texas. With his extensive experience in these areas, Michael provides comprehensive legal representation to clients facing complex litigation matters.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Michael honed his skills at prominent law firms in Dallas, Texas. He began his career as a litigation associate at a boutique firm, where he represented clients in personal injury cases and gained valuable courtroom experience. Michael then advanced to senior associate and later senior counsel positions at a national law firm, where he handled high-stakes litigation for major corporations, including national and regional trucking companies and property owners. Throughout his career, he has demonstrated expertise in various aspects of litigation, from pre-trial proceedings to appeals.

Michael earned his Juris Doctor from SMU Dedman School of Law in Dallas, Texas, in 2016. During law school, he participated in the Consumer Advocacy Clinic as a Student Attorney and Chief Student Attorney. Before pursuing his legal education, Michael graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in History from Austin College in Sherman, Texas, in 2012, where he ranked in the top 10% of his class.
