Biography

Todd Schwartz is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg, where he handles matters related to first-party insurance defense, including coverage disputes, responses to civil remedy notices of insurer violations, pre-suit investigations, examinations under oath, coverage evaluations, declaratory judgments and bad faith litigation.

Prior to joining the firm, Todd worked as a litigation attorney for an insurance defense firm where he gained experience handling cases related to first and third-party insurance claims, including property, personal injury protection (PIP), and bodily injury. Todd has handled a wide range of PIP matters in litigation, as well as the pre-suit investigation of suspicious claims and insurance fraud or misrepresentation. He also has experience representing banks, and mortgage lenders and servicers, in all aspects of litigation.

Todd received his Bachelor of Science in Finance from Lehigh University and went on to work for a large investment bank as an equity trader. Todd then earned his Juris Doctor degree from Hofstra University School of Law, graduating magna cum laude. While in law school, he was a Dean's Scholar every semester and received awards for excellence in the study of estate planning law and torts. Todd also successfully completed the National Institute of Trial Advocacy program and clerked for The Honorable Edmund M. Dane in Nassau County Family Court.
