Biography

Jason Silver is a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg, where he concentrates on matters related to all aspects of mortgage foreclosure & default services, assisting banks and other financial service providers with regulatory, enforcement, transactional and litigation matters, and representing commercial property owners and property managers with tenant lease compliance and breach issues.

Jason has more than a decade of experience in contested foreclosure litigation in Florida, New York, and the District of Columbia, guiding creditors from the beginning to completion of a court action. He is a Florida Supreme Court Qualified Arbitrator and previously held a Florida Realtor Sales Associate License.

Before joining the firm, Jason worked as an Associate Attorney at an AmLaw 200 firm, focusing his practice in the areas of banking and consumer finance in multiple jurisdictions. He also practiced bankruptcy, general litigation, and municipal and government law, presiding as the Deputy Municipal Attorney for the Village of El Portal, Florida.

Jason received his Bachelor of Science in Public Relations with a minor in History from the University of Florida, where he was elected to the Florida Blue Key Honor Society and awarded the Honorable Mention for the Outstanding Leadership and Service Award at graduation.

Regarding service to the community and the bar, Jason chaired the Palm Beach County Bar Association Young Lawyer's Section Run for Justice 5K event in 2023. He was appointed by the President of The Florida Bar as Chair The Florida Bar's Constitutional Judiciary Committee for 2023. He previously served as Chair of the Committee for Student Education and Admissions to the Bar and Chaired Florida Bar Grievance Committee 17 I. Jason is a past President of The Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division's Law Student Division and previously served as an elected member of The Dade County Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section Board of Directors.

Furthering his education, Jason earned his Juris Doctor degree from St. Thomas University School of Law. While in law school, Jason received a Book Award in Appellate Advocacy. Jason also worked as a legal intern for the Office of the City Attorney at the City of Miami in the Land Use, Zoning, and Quality of Life Division. He also interned for the Honorable Judge David Gersten (ret.) at the Third District Court of Appeal.

Jason is an avid runner and successfully completed the ING Miami Half Marathon and 13.1 races in 2011 and the Hollywood Beach Half Marathon in 2020.
