Biography

Lindsey Stadnik is a Practice Partner at Kelley Kronenberg where she assists in handling matters related to first-party property insurance defense.

Prior to joining the firm, Lindsey worked as a Legal Intern with the Broward County Public Defender's Office where she conducted research on Fourth Amendment issues and assisted clients through the legal process.

Lindsey received her Bachelor of Arts degree, summa cum laude, in Political Science with Minors in Criminal Justice, International Relations and Religious Studies from Florida International University. She also received a Certificate in Law, Ethics and Society and was awarded the Rebecca M. Salokar Scholarship. Lindsey then went on to receive her Juris Doctor degree from Florida International University College of Law.

While attending law school, Lindsey interned with the FIU Embrace Clinic where she assisted clients in maintaining guardianships by aiding in the application and renewal process. Lindsey is a graduate of the Practice-Ready Ethics and Professionalism (PREP) program and served as the Social Media Chair of the Environmental Law Society.

Lindsey is conversational in Spanish.
