

Biography

Danielle Wallis is a Partner handling matters related to first-party property insurance and general liability.

Prior to joining the firm, Danielle worked as an Associate Attorney in business defense law firm, where she represented corporate clients in bodily injury and premises liability matters.

Danielle also has experience in family law matters and currently works with Dade Legal Aid through their Put Something Back Program by providing legal services on a pro bono basis.

Danielle earned her Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Miami. She then went on to earn her Juris Doctor degree from the Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law. While in law school, Danielle worked as a Law Clerk at a civil litigation firm where she gained experience in personal injury protection and auto accident matters. She also earned Dean's List recognition and was the recipient of the Dean's Certificate of Professionalism.
