Biography

Garrett Bruner is an Attorney at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing his practice on general liability and third-party insurance defense matters.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Garrett served as a law clerk at a mid-size business law and estate planning firm, where he handled complex business issues, tax analysis, and real property transactions. He previously gained valuable experience at a family law firm, where he developed solutions for intricate legal challenges and gained extensive experience in civil litigation.

Garrett received his Bachelor of Business Administration with dual concentrations in Accounting and Business Administration from Boise State University. He went on to earn his Juris Doctor from Willamette University College of Law, where he served as Competition Chair and Vice President of the Willamette Sports Law Society. During law school, he worked as a Student Attorney in the Willamette University Immigration Clinic, managing multiple clients and appearing in court as Friend of Court.
