Biography

Aislynn Thomas-McDonald serves as Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg, where she focuses on family law and probate matters. Her comprehensive practice encompasses divorce, child custody, adoption and surrogacy law, collaborative divorce, wills and trusts, guardianship, and elder law.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Aislynn established herself as a respected family law practitioner, earning an AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rating by Martindale-Hubbell®. Throughout her career, she has dedicated herself to teaching, advocating for domestic violence awareness and prevention, children's legal advocacy, and women's rights. Her commitment to these causes extends beyond her legal practice through extensive community involvement.

Aislynn earned her Bachelor of Arts from American University of Paris, followed by a Master of Science from Mississippi College. She went on to receive her Juris Doctor from Florida International University College of Law.

Active in community service, she has served on numerous boards including Baptist Health South Florida Foundation, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Miami Women's Committee, and The Growing Place Early Education Center, while maintaining ongoing involvement with organizations such as Chapman Partnership for the Homeless and Pro-Literacy.

Aislynn is proficient in French.
