Biography

Sharmila Singh is an Attorney at Kelley Kronenberg who focuses her practice on business law and commercial litigation. Her experience spans complex commercial disputes, insurance defense, and regulatory compliance matters.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Sharmila served as an Attorney at a South Florida law firm where she handled insurance defense matters, including bodily injury and property damage claims. Her experience includes drafting dispositive motions, managing discovery, and conducting detailed coverage analyses. She also gained valuable experience through clerkships with various legal organizations, where she assisted with administrative hearings, trial preparation, and client advocacy.

Sharmila received her Bachelor of Health Services in Health Administration, summa cum laude, from Florida Atlantic University, with minors in Health Information Systems and Business Law. She earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Miami School of Law, where she served as Vice President of the South/West Asian and North African Law Student Association.
