Biography

Alexandra Gubista is an attorney at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on general liability, including construction accidents, premises liability, automobile liability, and New York Labor Law. She brings experience in personal injury litigation and case management to her defense practice.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Alexandra worked as an associate attorney at a White Plains law firm, where she represented clients in medical malpractice and personal injury cases, managing all aspects of case strategy and preparation. She drafted and filed legal documents, developed case assessments and strategic planning, and handled communication with clients, opposing counsel, and insurance adjusters. Previously, she served as a legal assistant at the same firm, where she provided support in conducting legal research, drafting reports, and preparing case files. Her experience also includes working as a legal assistant at another law firm, where she assisted in representation of Nassau County in small claims assessment review proceedings and prepared legal documents for real estate closings and landlord/tenant court proceedings.

Alexandra graduated from Quinnipiac University with a Bachelor of Arts and Science in Legal Studies and a minor in History, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and raised funds for Court Appointed Special Advocates. She earned her Juris Doctor from Roger Williams University School of Law, where she was a member of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity.
