Biography

Audri Salter is an attorney at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on general liability and third-party insurance defense matters.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Audri worked as an associate attorney defending employers and carriers in workers' compensation claims, where she drafted motions, pleadings, discovery responses, and legal memoranda, conducted claimant depositions, and drafted settlement documents. During law school, she served as an Economic Justice Fellow at the FAMU College of Law Legal Clinic, where she advised clients on business formation and IRS compliance, drafted service contracts and licensing agreements, and conducted legal research on business and administrative law issues. She also worked as a legal intern handling tax compliance and bankruptcy matters, conducting intake interviews and researching federal and state tax issues, and as a legal intern conducting interviews with disabled military veterans and compiling medical and financial records.

Audri earned her Bachelor of Science in Political Science, summa cum laude, from Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University. She received her Master of Applied Social Sciences, summa cum laude, from Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University School of Graduate Studies and Research. She earned her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University College of Law.
