

David Quinones

Partner

 New York City

 (845) 306-7867

 dquinones@kklaw.com

Biography

David Quinones is a Partner at Kelley Kronenberg in the Personal Injury Protection/No-Fault Division. His current role is centered on personal injury protection/no-fault insurance defense and special investigations (SIU).

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, David served as a Managing Attorney at a law firm specializing in medical billing disputes. He led a high-volume operation, handling NY personal injury protection/no-fault disputes. David brings extensive no-fault arbitration and litigation experience.

David earned his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Monmouth University, magna cum laude, and was a member of Beta Gamma Sigma Business Honor Society, Gamma Sigma Alpha Academic Honor Society, Omicron Delta Kappa Leadership Honor Society, and Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society. David received his Juris Doctor degree from Rutgers Law School, where he was awarded a Certificate in Corporate Business Law.

Admissions

- New York
- New Jersey
- Texas

Education

- Rutgers Law School, J.D., 2018
- Monmouth University, B.S., 2014