

Biography

Callina Harmon is an Attorney at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on workers' compensation defense.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Callina worked as an associate attorney at a personal injury law firm, where she conducted legal research, drafted pleadings and motions, managed the discovery process, and participated in settlement negotiations. She previously worked as a paralegal and legal assistant at a law firm managing a high-volume caseload, conducting legal research, drafting legal documents, assisting with trial preparation, and liaising with clients and opposing counsel.

Callina received a Bachelor's Degree in Legal Studies from the University of Central Florida. Thereafter, she earned her Juris Doctor from Barry University School of Law. During law school, she worked as a legal assistant at a tax law firm and for the Office of the Public Defender, where she managed client records, assisted attorneys with complex cases, handled office scheduling, and maintained litigation dockets for multiple attorneys.
