Biography

Jeanette Dixon is a Partner and Business Unit Leader at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing her practice on general liability and third-party insurance defense, with a particular emphasis on bad faith litigation. She brings over 20 years of experience in insurance coverage and bad faith defense, with nationally recognized accomplishments in complex insurance coverage disputes, coverage litigation, strategic litigation management, and high-exposure claims.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Jeanette founded and led the New York office of a prominent national civil litigation defense firm, developing a sophisticated insurance coverage and bad faith practice while handling a diverse range of defense litigation matters including premises liability, construction litigation, professional liability, healthcare liability, and employment law.

Throughout her career, Jeanette has represented insurers, businesses, and corporate clients in a wide range of defense, coverage, and complex litigation matters, including premises liability, construction litigation, professional liability, healthcare liability, employment law, and commercial disputes. She advises clients on insurance coverage analysis, regulatory compliance, risk management, and litigation strategy, and has extensive experience handling high-exposure coverage disputes and bad faith claims.

Known for her strategic approach and deep industry knowledge, Jeanette provides practical, results-driven counsel to clients across the insurance and corporate sectors. Her leadership, analytical expertise, and proven track record in insurance defense and coverage analysis have established her as a respected authority in the field.

Jeanette earned her Bachelor of Arts in Social Science Legal Studies and English from the State University of New York at Buffalo. She received her Juris Doctor from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law.

Jeanette has also made national media appearances. On June 2, 2013, she appeared as a legal analyst on Fox News Channel's America's News Headquarters with Gregg Jarrett, offering commentary on the admissibility of audio evidence in the high-profile George Zimmerman/Trayvon Martin case in Florida.
