Biography

Vieux Toure is an Attorney at Kelley Kronenberg, focusing his practice on general liability and third-party insurance defense matters.

Prior to joining Kelley Kronenberg, Vieux worked as an Associate Attorney at a prominent New York law firm for nearly four years, where he developed extensive litigation experience handling employment law matters in federal and state court, arbitration, mediation, and before administrative agencies including the EEOC. His practice encompassed employment discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and wage and hour claims, as well as internal investigations involving confidential and sensitive high-profile matters including discrimination, harassment, evaluation, white-collar crime, and breaches of fiduciary duties. He managed litigation across multiple forums and advised on case strategy and risk assessment. He also served as a summer associate at the firm, providing comprehensive exposure to litigation practice. His broad litigation background has equipped him with strong case management, discovery, investigation, and client counseling skills applicable to general liability defense.

Vieux earned his Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, magna cum laude, from the University at Albany, SUNY, where he was on the Dean's List and a member of the National Honor Society. He received his Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Fredric G. Levin College of Law, where he received the Outstanding Achievement Award for academic excellence and commitment to leadership in pro bono work and public service, and was on the Dean's List.
