Biography

Steve Gooby is Of Counsel at Kelley Kronenberg, working in the firm's General Liability Division. A highly accomplished litigator, he represents companies and organizations facing complex disputes in federal and state courts, and in arbitrations throughout the country.

His work spans commercial disputes, class actions, insurance coverage disputes, products liability and toxic tort claims, construction defect and delay damage claims, preliminary injunctions, and appeals. He also regularly counsels business organizations and individuals on contractual agreements, commercial issues, and risk management.

Prior to Kelley Kronenberg, Steve was a partner at a New Jersey law firm for more than seventeen years, where he litigated cases in the courts of New Jersey, New York, and across the United States, as well as in AAA and ICC arbitrations. His experience also includes more than a decade as an attorney at a leading international law firm and a partner at a regional firm.

Steve earned his Bachelor of Arts in International Relations from Syracuse University and his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Seton Hall University School of Law.
